FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

KIMBERLY FURUMO NAMED DIRECTOR OF PLANNING SERVICES

CHARLESTON, IL.--Kimberly Furumo of Charleston, Acting Director of Planning Services at Eastern Illinois University since April, has been named Director of Planning Services.

Furumo oversees a staff of 10 and is responsible for coordinating the planning and budget function of the University. This includes nonacademic program development and review and preparation of planning statements, operating requests, and capital requests for the Board of Governors of State Colleges and Universities and the Board of Higher Education.

She also oversees institutional research and prepares internal and external reports for various agencies and professional organizations, and works closely with Eastern's Vice President for Administration and Finance Verna Armstrong.

Furumo joined the Eastern staff in 1989 as Assistant Director of Planning Services. Prior to that, she was Director of Information Systems for Peat Marwick Main & Company. She has also worked as an information center consultant for the University Hospitals of Cleveland and a business instructor at the University of Akron.

She has a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Akron, a Master of Social Work from Saint Louis University, and Bachelor of Arts from the University of Wisconsin at Madison.

Furumo is a member of the Charleston Rotary Club, Sigma Iota Epsilon honorary business fraternity, and the Association of Institutional Research.

She and her husband, Norbert, Assistant Professor of Chemistry at Eastern, have two children, John, and Paul.
